Serial No.

Letter No. 5017-B-47, dated 13th November 1947 from the Collector, Civil Station, Bangalore, proposing that the Treasury in the Civil Station, Bangalore, be designated "The Treasury, Civil Station, Bangalore".

1) Prior to Retrocession, the Civil Station Treasury was known as "The Hon'ble the Resident's Treasury", and the names "Treasury, Civil Station", and "Civil Treasury, Bangalore", are used in Official Correspondence, after Retrocession, by the Accountant-General, Madras and others.

2) In order to avoid its being confused with the ~~two~~ other two treasuries in Bangalore, namely, the State Huzur Treasury and the District Treasury, the Collector proposes that the treasury in the Civil Station may be designated "The Treasury, Civil Station, Bangalore".

3) As a popular form of the name suggested may be preferable for daily use, it is for consideration whether a slightly shorter term such as "Civil Treasury, Bangalore", or "Civil Station Treasury, Bangalore" would not more appropriate.

4) Perhaps the Financial Secretary and the Comptroller may be consulted in the matter.

Submitted for order.

CHIEF SECRETARY CB 15 NOV 1947 GOVT. OF MYSORE

To

The Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore
Bangalore.

SIR,

Subject: Change of name of Treasury in the Civil Station- requested - U/O No. 306 dated 7-11-47 from the Treasury Officer, Civil Station, Bangalore.

The treasury in Civil Station, Bangalore, was being called as "Hon'ble the Resident's Treasury, Bangalore", before retrocession. The names "Treasury, Civil Station", and "Civil Treasury, Bangalore", are being used in offici correspondence by the Accountant General, Madras, and others after retrocession. Some of the letters so addressed have some times been delivered at Huzur Treasury by mistake and are being redirected by them. There is a liklihood of confusion regarding the name of the treasury in this Station, as there are already two treasuries (Huzur Treasury and District Treasury) situated in Bangalore. Hence I request that orders may please be issued by the Government to the effect that the treasury in this Station, may be called as "The Treasury, Civil Station, Bangalore", as the existing rubber seals and monograms etc., required to be changed accordingly.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant

Collector. 14/11
